Information

25X1

1. Colonel Alekzenko (fnu) was ~~identified~~ as successor of Colonel Zakharov (fnu), chief of the air force ~~unit~~ in Brandenburg. 25X1

2. As reported previously, Brandenburg - Briest airfield was allegedly occupied by jet aircraft in early April 1955. This was confirmed by various acquaintances of source between 15 and 30 April 1955. 25X1

3. Air Force Unit Krazavitski

According to a previous and unconfirmed information, the Soviet Air Force Unit Krazavitski had vacated Brandenburg - Briest airfield in early April 1955 taking all aircraft along. It happened accidentally that, during a visit at the aviation school in Doeberitz-Elstal in early May 1955, Lieutenant Colonel Krazavitski (fnu) was not there. 25X1

This dinner was attended by Lieutenant Colonel Krazavitski, two officers of his staff, Major Atanov (fnu) and Captain Yakushev (fnu), who were also known from Briest, and Air Force Colonel Nikitin (fnu), chief of the flying school. Nikitin                     , very polite and with good manners. During the conversation it was learned that Unit Krazavitski had apparently entirely transferred to Doeberitz. Krazavitski stated that he was no longer chief of the unit and that he was transferred to the Doeberitz flying school. He also said that Colonel Nikitin was his new boss. 25X1

Comment. The transfer of Colonel Zakharov was reported previously. Same source mentioned Colonel Alekzenko as the presumed successor.                     

                     It has not been determined if the reported air force staff in Brandenburg is the staff of the technical division (ATD) or the staff of the ground attack division. 25X1

2. Comment. Major Krazavitski previously was the commander of the OATB of the ground attack regiment in Brandenburg - Briest which transferred to Doeberitz and apparently remained there. Colonel Nikitin, Major Atanov and Captain Yakushev are reported for the first time. 25X1
